

Friend, -Salutations to you. The end of that.

Friend, do you give heed to our laws for regulating the fight.

Rule 1. If wounded or captured whole, and butt of the musket or hilt of the sword be turned to me, he will be saved.

Rule 2. If any Pakeha, being a soldier by name, shall be travelling unarmed and meets me, he will be captured, and handed over to the direction of the law.

Rule 3. The soldier who flees, being carried away by his fears, and goes to the house of the priest with his gun (even though carrying arms) will be saved. I will not go there.

Te Peruperu a Pukehinahina - Whakamarama

Nā Reweti Te Mete tēnei whakamaramatanga

Kaea: Tēnā i tau, taua!

Nō Poteriwhi ngā ture o te riri //

At Poteriwhi the rules of engagement for the battle of gate Pa were decided on.

Nō Te Waoku, ka ngiha, ka nguha, ka ngangana e!

Invitations were sent to Lieutenant Colonel Greer and his Imperial troops to come and fight at Te Waoku (a traditional Pā located by the Waimapu river)

I ā hā hā!

Ka tohe au, (i) ka tohe au, (i) ka tohe au ki te Tiriti / ō Waitangi / kī te mana motuhake o aku tūpuna e!

I refuse, I object to the Treaty of Waitangi having rule over the power and authority of my ancestors

I ā hā hā!

Ka tū te ihi, ka tū te wana (ki) Pukehinahina // Pukerohutū // te pā tūwiri e!

Let the fierceness and rage happen at Gate Pā, a place of terror! (as our tūpuna were in the bunkers awaiting the cannons to cease their bombing)

Kaea: Titiro, titiro ki Pukereia!

Look toward Pukereia!

Pū, pū, pū kawa e! Ina te hinu kei roto i te pūrepō a te Pākehā!

The guns of destruction! There is sustenance in these white man's cannons! (My translation is: 'Should I die today let it be a warrior's death'!)

Rū rū rū ana te whenua o Tahuriwakanui!

The land of Tahuriwakanui is rumbling like an earthquake (reference to being bombed) Tahuriwakanui is acknowledged because his pa Tūtara Wānanga (Yatton Park) is the closest traditional pā and he is a key tupuna for Ngāi Tamarāwaho and Ngāti Ruahine.

The following section gives reference to the Gate Pa flag (which are all tohu Atua) our tupuna flew at the battle: it also highlights some key tupuna that have been historically acknowledged because of the role they played in the lead up or during the battle.

Kei mua te kura – The red in the flag: In front is the sacred colour red Paraone Koikoi – A central figure in the local hapu Ngai Tamarawaho which were one of two local hapu that had the majority of warriors present,

(but also the father of Ihakara who is acknowledged as one of the first people to be killed and Paraone is also the father of Te Auetū)

Kei runga te whetu – The star in the flag: Above is the star Rawiri Puhirake – Attributed as being the commander of the Māori warriors in the lead up and during the battle, his connections are Ngāti Tapu, Ngāi Tūkairangi and Wairoa.

Kei raro te mārama – The moon in the flag: Below is the moon Penetaka Tuaia – Attributed to being the person responsible for the construction of Gate Pā, a first cousin to Puhirake with documented links to Ngāti Tapu, Ngāi Tūkairangi and Wairoa.

Kei muri ripeka – The cross in the flag: Behind is the cross Henare Taratoa – Attributed as being the person responsible for writing the rules of engagement at Pōteriwhi (A Pā located at Wairoa River) documented as having links to Ngāi Tukairangi, Te Ngare and Ngāti Raukawa.

Nā Aramahou Ririnui tēnei whakamarama

E whakaahua ana tēnei haka i te riri o ngā iwi o Tauranga mō te ūnga mai o ngā hōia o Piritana, otirā o te Kāwanatanga ki te wahapū o Tauranga i te tau 1864. Ka taetae mai te tini o ngā hōia i waenga i ngā marama o Hanuere me Aperira. Ka nui te manawapā o te iwi kāinga kei riro te whenua, a, nā wai rā ka huihuia ngā iwi kia tū tētahi pakanga i te 29 o Aperira 1864 i Pukehinahina. Ko Rawiri Puhirake te kaihautu. Ko Henare Taratoa te tohunga whakahaere i ngā karakia. Ko Penetaka Tuiaia te tohunga waihanga i ngā pā maioro.

Ka tae mai hoki ētahi atu o ngā iwi o waho o Tauranga, ki te tautoko i te tangata whenua, ā, e kitea ana aua iwi rā i roto i te haka nei.

Nō muri mai i te pakanga o Pukehinahina, ko te iwi kāinga i toa, ahakoa te tokomaha o ngā hōia Piritana me a rātou pū nui. Ēngari he maha o ō tātou tīpuna i parekuratia i te horonga o te pā i Te Ranga i te 6 o Hune.

Translation

Leader: Tis a gloomy night; Tis a gloomy day Summon the people Trouble is imminent with the arrival of the demon (Pakeha)
The year is 1864; the month is April.

Group: Mauao, Kopukairoa, Otanewainuku, Puwhenua, Weraiti, Te Aroha, Hikurangi – Mountains that encompass the land; prominent landmarks of Tauranga – home to Ngati Ranginui, Ngai Te Rangi, Ngati Pukenga.

In this region emerge the multitudes of people
From the tribes of Rangiwehehi, Hinekura, Koheriki, Waikato, Te Whakatohea, Who have come as allies to the home people of Tauranga

Leader: What is the reason for this stranger (Pakeha) in being here?

Group: It is to acquire land
I will never agree to give my land to the Pakeha
I will stand firm on my mountains (providers of nourishment and stability)
So that I can still hear the birds singing to me
I must fight for my land

Leader: The British soldiers come before me at Pukehinahina to do battle

Group: The earth shakes from canon fire and bombardment
Lightning flashes
Clouds of smoke fill the sky as if they are ghosts
Echoes of double barrel and musket guns pierce the sky

Leader: Is there any more juice in those canons Pakeha?

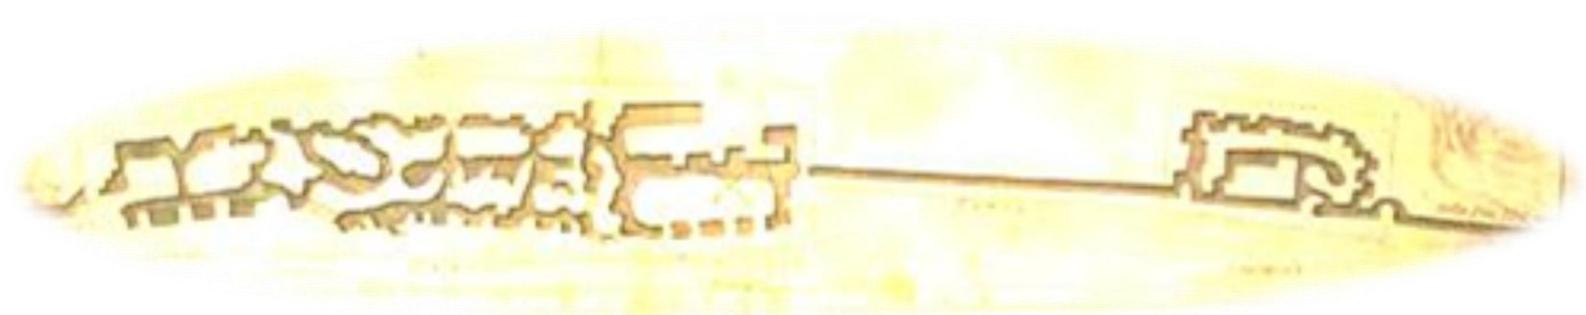

Group: Let us see
Welcome descendants of the white heron (Queen Victoria)
- Consumer of lands beyond
Come forth to the empire of leaders
Who stem from all corners of this land
Alas a meal is laid out before us
Falling of blows between armies is about to follow

Leader: A verse from the bible (Romans) is instructed by the high priest “If thy enemy is hungry feed him,
If thy enemy is thirsty, give him something to drink,”

Leader: The sun shines beyond Tawauwau

Group: Indeed it does
The neck of this kawau (a traditional Maori battle formation) will remain strong
To embrace the land and the treasures passed down
My influence is inherited through my ancestors
It is the source of growth, of well-being, of which is originated from Hawaiki our ancestral homeland.

He Waiata Tawhito na Turupa mo Kereti

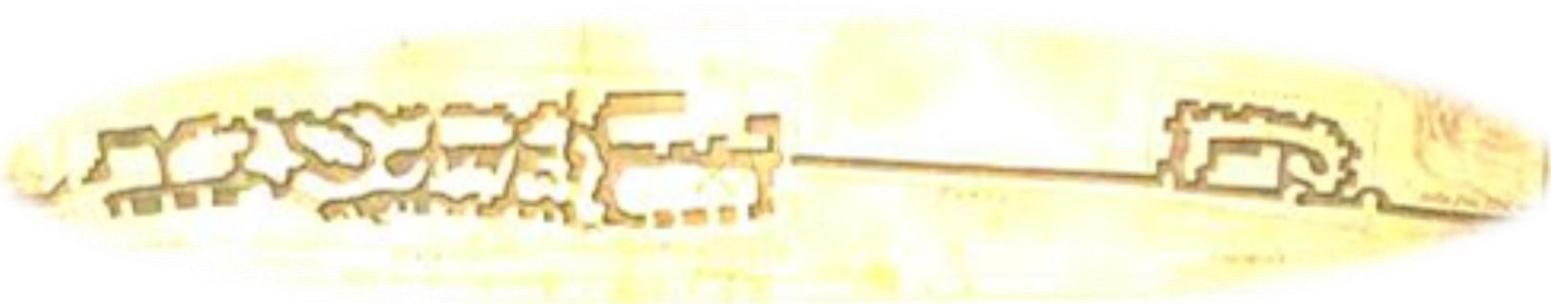

Nā Matiu Dickson tēnei whakamarama

*Takiri ko te ata he tuunga no te makau
As dawn breaks, is that an image of my Beloved?
*Taku tirotiro noa Ki waenga ki te hono ka ngaro koutou
As I search the faces, of those lost in the battle.
*Haere ra e Pa ma, Ki te riri horahora i te waka e tau nei Farewell sirs, lost to the war spread throughout the land. there is the ship landed here.
*E 'Reti rongo kino Rongo whakarihariha te hoki mai ki ahau
'Reti, I heard a horrible thing, a premonition that you would not return
*Mei hinga taku tau Ki te pakitara whare penei pea koe
If you have died my beloved, it would be like the collapse of the house
*Taarunatia Ki te muka tuao kia pai atu koe Linger awhile so that the woven cloak may decorate you
*Te haere ki raro ra Kia pohiritia mai kei o tupuna Depart for the underworld, so you ancestors may greet you
*Kei a Tamanataha Kei a Tamangarangi taku ao totara
By your ancestors Tamanataha and Tamangarangi of the old world
*Au whanga i te uru Kia whakarongo au nga hirere wai
I turn to the west to listen for the sound of the waterfalls
*Roto i te Korokoro E ahu to mata nga tai e haruru
There at Korokoro (McLaren Falls) where the sound is thunderous
*Waho o Tukey Nga wai whakaihi na o tupuna
Whereas at Tukey, the quiet waters revered by our ancestors
*Mei riro pea koe Ki roto Hauraki ka mahinga nuitia koe
*Na taua e Koro ee...
I accept that you have died, your spirit departed to Hauraki, my Beloved!

My disturbing thoughts and my songs
Welling up from deep within That now tortures me this way and that, where are you
Lost from my sight
Departed and gone from sight

To Whanganui or where Let your spirit return to the other world to another life

I cherish the gentle touch of your hands
Your work now a legacy to those left behind
Why oh why was it that you're taken away
You fell
Rest there – why
Is that the revered place for you

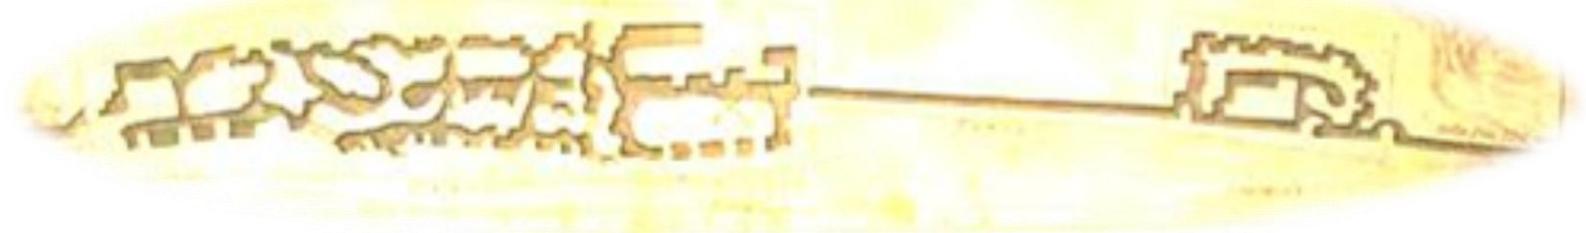

Place of tears
Who then judged it so
Who must bear the shame
As you plunge
Into the waters
This separation
along the paths of gods gone forever, gone

The dawn has been drawn from darkness above Turuturu
An emblem for a friend
You live on within us, alas

This is a personalized waiata tangi expressing the disturbance of the composer in this wake and in his sleep again. The names establish the identity of Ngāi Tamarawaho.

Whanganui – this is reference to the Whanganui (Wanganui) River

Nā te pukapuka ‘Taku Tau Kahurangi’ tēnei whakamarama

Nā Tupaea tonu te mate nei o tana teina i mataara, i tangihia. E hia kē ngā tau i tō ai te pakanga mō Maketū mai i te wā i a Te Rangihouhiri rāua ko Tamapahore tonu, ā tae noa ki te tau 1836. I taua wā i tū te pakanga ki Te Tumu, te ingoa tawhito mō te wāhi e timata ana ki Wairākei i te rae o Pāpāmoa tae noa ake ki Maketū. Ko te whawhai o 1836, i tohu ake ai te mutunga o tō Ngāi Te Rangi pupuri ki te rohe nei. I mua i te hingatanga mai o Te Tumu i a Te Arawa, i haere ngā tini ihorei nō Ngāi Te Rangi ki te kawe ā riri. Nā rātou anō a Tupaea i whakahoki atu ki Tauranga, kei mate noa atu ngā Ika ā Whiro o Ngāi Te Rangi ki Maketū.

Mā te waiata ataahua nei e mau ki āna kupu mōteatea mō ake tonu atu. Ahakoa ka kaha rongo i te nui o ngā kuia e hī ana, e tika ana mā te tane te waiata nei e tātaki. E rongohia whānuitia ana a ‘Kapokapo’ ki ngā tangihanga, wānanga me ngā hui whakanui ā iwi.

Kupu Tawhito:

Matatāhuna: Ngā maunga me ngā puke tohu whenua o te kāinga

Rauiti: Te pirautanga o te kiri mate

Tupua: He ingoa mō te tangata hāpai pū e whakatepengia te paura pū (He rerekē rawa i te whakamārama a Ngata e kii ana ko te kupu ‘tipua’)

Ika ā Whiro: He ingoa mō ngā toa me ngā tohunga, kirikawa ki te rākau, kirikawa ki te patu, mātau ana ki ngā tikanga a Tūmatauenga
